

Annotated Bibliography Peer Review

1. Look over their paper in general. Is it in MLA format? Does the title look correct?

Example:

Children and Cell Phones: An Annotated Bibliography

2. Are the citations set up correctly? If they are longer than one line, are they indented 5 spaces? Are they in bold font?

3. Are there two paragraphs for each citation? Is the first paragraph a summary of the source? Is the second paragraph their reflection on that source? *Remind to put the second paragraph in italics...

4. Are there any proofreading mistakes or editing mistakes?
